- For the questions below, if you (the student) can answer “Yes” to any of them, please login to your FAFSA at www.studentaid.gov and make a correction to answer Yes and re-submit. You are considered Independent for financial aid purposes and do not need to include your parents on your FAFSA (some instances below will require documentation).
 - Was the student born before January 1, 2001?
 - Is the student married?
 - Does the student have children or dependents other than a spouse?
 - Is the student pursuing a Master’s or Doctorate degree?
 - Is the student currently serving on active duty in the U.S. armed forces for purposes other than training?
 - Is the student a veteran of the U.S. armed forces?
 - Was the student an orphan, foster child, or ward/dependent of the court any time after age 13?
 - Is the student an emancipated minor or in a legal guardianship, as determine by a court?
 - Was the student not living in the physical custody of their parents and homeless any time after July 1, 2023?
 - Do unusual circumstances prevent the student from contacting their parents or would pose a risk to the student?
- If you (the student) answer “No” to all the questions above, but your parents have ended financial support or refuse to provide their information on your FAFSA, your parent must sign the statement below confirming their lack of support so that we can assess your eligibility for a Federal Unsubsidized Loan. We also urge you to make an appointment with a Financial Aid Counselor to discuss your situation.

If that is the case, your parent must sign the statement below confirming their lack of support.
